

Flagler County Primary Election August 2022

Local Races for which Democrats and NPA's can vote

*Our recommended candidates

Flagler County School Board District 1-- Non-partisan

Who will be on the Primary ballot	Who can vote in this race?	Results of the Primary
* Sally Hunt	All Registered Voters throughout the County regardless of party. Candidate's Party will not be listed on the ballot	As there are only two candidates in this race, whichever gets the most votes during the Primary election in August will become the office-holder.
Jill R. Woolbright

Flagler County School Board District 2-- Non-partisan

Who will be on the Primary ballot	Who can vote in this race?	Results of the Primary
Lance Alred	All Registered Voters throughout the County regardless of party. Candidate's Party will not be listed on the ballot	If one of the candidates gets 50% plus 1 vote in the Primary, that candidate will become the office-holder and this race will not need to go to the General Election Ballot in Nov. Otherwise, the top two vote-getters will go to the General Election ballot in November.
Will Furry
* Courtney VandeBunte

Flagler County School Board District 4-- Non-partisan

Who will be on the Primary ballot	Who can vote in this race?	Results of the Primary
Christie Marie Chong	All Registered Voters throughout the County regardless of party. Candidate's Party will not be listed on the ballot	As there are only two candidates in this race, whichever gets the most votes during the Primary election in August will become the office-holder.
* Trevor Donald Tucker

Flagler County Commission District 2-- PARTISAN

Who will be on the Primary ballot	Who can vote in this race?	Results of the Primary
Denise Calderwood (REP)	Because there is only one political party represented in this particular race, this is called a "Universal Primary" and all registered voters in the County, regardless of party, can vote in this Primary race. We are not recommending any specific candidate in this race.	The candidate which gets the most votes during the Primary in August will become the office-holder.
