Flagler County School Board District 4-- Non-partisan

Who will be on the Primary ballot	Who can vote in this race?	Results of the Primary
Christie Marie Chong, Trevor Donald Tucker	All Registered Voters throughout the County regardless of party. Candidate's Party will not be listed on the ballot	As there are only two candidates in this race, whichever gets the most votes during the Primary election in August will become the office-holder.

Flagler County Commission District 2-- PARTISAN

Who will be on the Primary ballot	Who can vote in this race?	Results of the Primary
Denise Calderwood (REP) Greg Hansen (REP)	Even though this is a Partisan race, all Registered Voters in the County, regardless of party, can vote in this Primary race because there is only one political party represented in this particular race. This situation is called a "Universal Primary" and all registered voters in the County, regardless of party, can vote in this Primary race.	As there are only two candidates in this race, whichever gets the most votes during the Primary in August will become the office-holder.

Who will be on the Primary ballot	Who can vote in this race?	Results of the Primary

Joseph Mullins (REP), Leann Pennington (REP)	Go get an aspirin or two because you are going to need them. This race looks similar to Commission District 2 race, doesn't it: 2 REP in District 2 and 2 REP in District 4. HOWEVER, it is NOT the same because there is an NPA candidate (Jane Gentile-Youd) also in this District 4 race. https://www.voterfocus.com/CampaignFinance/candidate_pr.php?el=30&c=flagler State statutes state the NPA will go directly to the General election ballot in November and will not appear on the Primary ballot. But since the NPA is actually in the race and will be on the General Election ballot, this is not a Universal Primary like District 2 is, even though it looks like it on the Primary Ballot. ONLY REPs throughout the County can vote in this particular District 4 Primary race. Registered Democrats or NPA's CANNOT vote in this Primary race. This race will not even be listed on the ballots given to Democrats and NPA's.	As there are only two candidates on the Primary ballot, whichever gets the most votes during the Primary will be on the General Election ballot along with the NPA in November.
